

First Morning Sun Extension Activity

Thank you for all of the good work that you do!

I'm happy to send along this classroom extension activity for the children in your care. Here are the instructions:

1. Print copies of the attached page on single-sided sheets of paper.
2. Fold the paper as demonstrated on my YouTube channel. You will need scissors to make one cut in the folded papers.

The words for the First Morning Sun booklet are different from those pictured in that video, but the layout and process are the same. You can find the demonstration video on YouTube under Aimee Reid Books or follow this link:

3. The children can draw or write about the prompts.

Note: If you'd like to send me pictures of the children's work, I'd be happy to respond with an emailed reply that you can read to them and also to, with permission, post the pictures on my social media accounts. You can find me online at my website www.aimeereidbooks.com, and on Instagram, Twitter, and Facebook @AimeeReidBooks.

I welcome snail mail correspondence as well and would be delighted to send a reply to your school, library, or organization.

My mailing address is:

Aimee Reid
301-1063 KING STREET WEST
Hamilton ON L8S 4S3 Canada

Special offers: I send a newsletter out about four times a year with special offers such as draws for books and free school visits. I'd be happy for you to be included. If you're interested, you can find a link on my website at www.aimeereidbooks.com.

I'm wishing you continued joy in your work.

Sincerely,

Aimee Reid
